THE HONOR STUDENTS

The scholastic standards of any school are upheld by those students who have attained heights in scholastic achievements above the average. The first fourteen students have attained an average of 95 or above during their four years in high school. The remaining thirty-one have an average of 90 or better. The class is very proud of these pupils who have upheld the scholastic honor of our school.

OUR SCHOOL CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

- Sept. 6—School begins. Freshies look wide-eyed and awesome.
- Sept. 8—Just another big shot around here—John Alvin Taylor was elevated to the role of a he-man's position.
- Sept. 12—Miss Thompson came to school today, just a week late. She lost her calendar.
- Sept. 13—It's a good thing it isn't Friday.
- Sept. 14—Have you noticed all the P. G.'s that are back? Zelpha admitted that their love for the dear old Alma Mater was too strong to abandon it.
- Sept. 15—Petitions are out for class officers. Lloyd Johnson has issued a petition for the position of head janitor.
- Sept. 16—The question arises, "Are we or are we not going to have an El-Pe?" Come on, under classmen, won't you help us?
- Sept. 19—LaPorte was on the short end of the 19-13 score against Hammond in the first gridiron tussle.
- Sept. 20—Failing slips will not be mailed to parents this year, so George Allen won't have to watch the mail so closely.
- Sept. 21—The first assembly of the year. Rev. Kenny gave us an interesting talk.
- Sept. 22—Tut! Tut!—didn't Ed Ponczek "go and get himself sick" so he can't play football.
- Sept. 23—Class election. Big upset. Benny Brenda is chosen to guide the noble seniors.
- Sept. 26—Freshies hold first class assembly. Mr. Wetherow talked to them on "Charting Your Life." L. P. bowed to Riley 26-7.
- Sept. 27—Committee of 31 is organized with the distinguished Mr. Richard Howard Ivey as president. Season tickets go on sale with a 50c reduction in price.
- Sept. 28—The Woodwind Ensemble entertained us with sweet, melodious music.
- Sept. 29—Mr. J. Alvin Taylor announces that his belief is "Every man's lazy."
- Sept. 30—Senior-Junior assembly. The building shook with the thunderous voices of the upperclassmen. Mixer tonight. Are you staggering it?

OCTOBER

- Oct. 3—Depression hit us—Elkhart 25-L. P. 0. Jean Cormick begins her new duties as president of French Club.
- Oct. 4—Arnold Elaney and Bill Hanson will lead the cheering Slicers.
- Oct. 5—Attorney Ben C. Rees addressed us on "The Rate of school standing to success." An inspiring oration.
- Oct. 7—Library Council organized with Margaret Porter, president; Don Coykendall, treasurer. Scott Rumely is preparing to slug Don when the latter makes his monthly collections.
- Oct. 10—4-H Club entertains new members at tea. Letterman's club starts with Benny Brenda as chief pilot. Slicers score didn't get any larger but South Bend's arose to 30.
- Oct. 11—Junior Red Cross gave a matinee dance. Did the Freshies trample over you?
- Oct. 12—Mr. Krider has revealed that his Spanish club was started in 1492.
- Oct. 13—We learned all about birds today from Mr. A. T. Johnson, author and naturalist. Teachers have to go to school Friday and Saturday.
- Oct. 14—9B's take library test after diligent coaching by Library Council members. Mr. Hyde's room won by a close margin and chose an autographic copy of Halliburton's "Flying Carpet."
- Oct. 17—No kidding—L. P. 38-Valpo 0. Tryouts for senior play. Dick Ivey wants to be the villain.
- Oct. 18—Elizabeth Freeman is elected president of the Girls' Council.
- Oct. 19—Lucille Cloutier, Zelpha Bounds, John Swan, Edward Lundgren, Helen Mueller, and Kathryn Schumacher, accompanied by the coach, Miss Young, staged a play at Indianapolis for the State Teachers' Institute.
- Oct. 19—New Hi-Y members are given hot time by their superiors. Little Dave Stowell is still pulling slivers out of his nose.
- Oct. 20—A. T. is the proud parent of baby boy; and he didn't name the baby Algernon!
- Oct. 21—Library Council holds meeting while Miss Bennett attends Teachers Association in Indianapolis. It is their most instructive meeting so they say.
- Oct. 24—Ye old menace again—Goshen 13-L. P. 7. Report cards—those dear little white things.
- Oct. 25—Merchant of Venice and Macbeth presented in high school auditorium. Our own high school actors are looking forward to becoming Shakespearian characters.

- Oct. 26—Magazine campaign is started by Mr. Gore, the "Woman's Home Companion man." Senior profits to go toward the El-Pe.
 Oct. 27—Freshies hold a Halloween party. If you want to know how to have a good time, ask any freshie.
 Oct. 28—Coach Bennett started reducing for the game. He walked to school this morning preparatory to tackling that street car tomorrow.
 Oct. 31—Yes, it's true. L. P. 0-M. C. 0. Isn't it great? The first time in eight years that M. C. hasn't defeated us.

NOVEMBER

- Nov. 1—Einstein visited the Chemistry classes today. Beg pardon, we mean Ellis Marshall.
 Nov. 2—Can you imagine it? No assembly.
 Nov. 3—Entre Nous holds its first meeting of the year and elects Marcella Laymon, president.
 Nov. 4—Sophomores hold their first class party in the girls' gym. The refreshments were delicious, so Dave Rumely says.
 Nov. 7—The weekly honor roll is filed in the office. Richard Flentye was given the highest grade in ability to sleep in study hall.
 Nov. 8—Notice posted on bulletin board today—For Sale, a seat with a clear parking space of two inches for gum—see Leatha Haag.
 Nov. 9—It looks as though Annette gets into all sorts of entanglements—in "Love in a Mist."
 Nov. 10—Goodby football—Mishawaka 20. L. P. H. S. 7. Anyway we almost beat M. C.
 Nov. 11—We all celebrated Armistice Day at the Civic Auditorium. Miss Seaman was able to walk the full distance without any mishaps.
 Nov. 15—"Wie geht's." "Ganz gut, ich danke." Mrs. Russell has formed a German club composed of present students, P. G.'s, and former students.
 Nov. 16—Rev. Wilson talked to us about Japan. Harold Shepard is planning on moving there since the neighbors don't bother anyone.
 Nov. 17—Miss Jones has organized a Travel Club with Howard Wainscott as president.
 Nov. 18—Senior Play "Love in a Mist." Blackie is just dying to exhibit her ability.
 Nov. 21—Annette is signed up for a Broadway contract after her howling success in "Love in a Mist."
 Nov. 22—Thanksgiving dance—Juniors are getting more proficient every year.
 Nov. 23—East Chicago 23. L. P. 22, in the first basketball game of the season.
 Nov. 24—No school. Thanksgiving. Hmm—wasn't that turkey delicious?
 Nov. 28—"Lizzy" Freeman wants another day to recuperate from that "toikey," (and she's supposed to be reducing.)
 Nov. 29—"The Ghost Train."—Miss Thompson became completely and gloriously inebriated.
 Nov. 30—Miss Young's public speaking classes provided the assembly today. Jack Wood just couldn't behave himself.

DECEMBER

- Dec. 1—Committee of 31 makes preparation for Junior Honor Society.
 Dec. 2—First copy of library News Noser comes off the press. For sale at one cent each, or read it free on your bulletin board.
 Dec. 3—Entre Nous entertained librarian and student assistants from county schools and Central at tea in the High School Library and Little Auditorium. Betty Tallant says the tea wasn't strong enough!!!
 Dec. 5—Report Cards. Wanatah bowed to us, 18-14.
 Dec. 6—Junior 4-H leaders attend Chicago exhibit.
 Dec. 7—Industrial Arts Clubs elects officers with Blake Tripp chosen president of the Executive Council.
 Dec. 8—The El-Pe—just a senior year book but since we are so generous, the juniors can have their pictures in too.
 Dec. 12—Team returns home raring to go: Jeffersonville 14, L. P. 13. Evansville 21-L. P. 19 in a triple overtime game. Not bad—eh?
 Dec. 13—Girl Reserves oblige with an extra dance to complete Leap Year.
 Dec. 14—Hi-Times published today. Rev. Phillips of the Methodist church talks on Christmas spirit.
 Dec. 15—The French students aren't the least bit grown up. They played French games at the meeting of the French Club. Miss Dick wasn't idle either.
 Dec. 16—Tom Dobbie found that dear old Santa came early and left all Tommy asked for in mamma's clothes closet. Imagine! Valpo 22-Slicers 20.
 Dec. 19—Results of library tests, coached in sophomore home rooms entirely by Library Council members, are announced. Miss Redford's home room sponsored by Mary Chase wins over keen competition and selects "Forgive Us Our Trespasses," by Douglas, to be purchased in their honor.

- Dec. 20—The Freshies couldn't stay home today. They saw "Christmas in Many Lands" at their regular assembly.
- Dec. 21—Kridner couldn't let Mrs. Russell get ahead of him so he forms a Spanish class and so many students responded that he has two classes.
- Dec. 22—Die froliche Gesellschaft sang Christmas carols in Deutsch today and sent the students home for a merry vacation.
- Dec. 23—No Christmas present yet—Red Devils 24-Slicers 19.

JANUARY

- Jan. 3—School resumed. We saw Herbie walking down the halls today with a blond. It wasn't Virginia either.
- Jan. 4—"Weenies on Wednesday." At least Evangeline Stroud thinks they are delicious.
- Jan. 5—Lettermen's club decides to have pins. Our guess is that the members themselves won't have the pins for long.
- Jan. 6—Miss Walk—in her sixth hour Sociology, "What was a cause of polygamy?"
- Jan. 9—LaPorte tumbled to Elkhart 32 to 23 in the first conference game of the year.
- Jan. 10—Oh, my—Marian accidentally stepped on Miss Andrew's small foot. The injured lady was helped to her room by the sympathetic Miss Jones.
- Jan. 12—Third meeting of Entre Nous. Members honored by having Miss Brown talk on the Bodleian Library at Oxford. As a preliminary word of advice she says not to get married at the first chance or even the second, but the third—ah, consider.
- Jan. 13—Just Friday the 13th. Goshen tramples on us to the tune of 27-24 to prove it.
- Jan. 16—Even Miss Huddleston has gotten the test fever and has burdened her typing classes.
- Jan. 17—Didn't Ted fall hard? He and Blackie seem to be able to patrol the first floor handsomely together.
- Jan. 18—Lucy Murphy elected president of the 4-H. We would rather watch Lucille Ribordy since she is the treasurer.
- Jan. 19—Everyone starts digging. For what? We'll let you answer it. But here's a clue, report cards come out Monday.
- Jan. 20—Music department presents its annual opera, "Yeoman of the Guard." Evelyn Harness knows all about the technique of singing.
- Jan. 23—Riley 27-L. P. 23. Incidentally report cards were issued today.
- Jan. 24—Lots of hustle and bustle. Not only does the second semester begin but Mr. Taylor's system of vocational home-rooms goes into effect. Vic Hagerty can't decide upon a home-room. He hasn't any occupation.
- Jan. 25—Only 194 $\frac{3}{4}$ more days of school!
- Jan. 26—Debate class goes to East Chicago. Do they ever have keen looking girls there? Ask Dick Ivey.
- Jan. 27—Miss Jones: (addressing members of Travel Club) Have any of you traveled to points of interest? Bill Hansen: Yes, I have been to Pinhook.
- Jan. 30—Did we ever take Mishawaka and Central for a ride or not? Slicers 29-Mishawaka 23, and L. P. 39-Central 34.
- Jan. 31—Mr. Sparks talks about Stevens College. Debate class wins first debate of season. The win was credited to Miss Thompson, debate coach.

FEBRUARY

- Feb. 1—Rev. A. C. Van Rie from St. Joseph's talks on "The Purpose of Life."
- Feb. 2—What? George Cook back in school again!
- Feb. 3—Hazel Palm admitted that she was a big nut, only in a play for public speaking.
- Feb. 6—Too bad M. C. 27—L. P. 26. What a thrilling game! Also Froebel 28—LaPorte 13.
- Feb. 7—Committee of 31 reorganized with Dick Ivey, again president.
- Feb. 8—Junior Honor Society is formed with formal initiation for the honored students. Herman Middleton felt slighted because his name wasn't called.
- Feb. 9—Just a mere 20 below. Not many thermometers left to register the cold.
- Feb. 10—Freshies might have gotten frost bitten so we didn't have any school today.
- Feb. 13—Hurrah—L. P. 33-Nappanee 19. Debaters discussed matters other than debate at Lizzy Freeman's home. Miss Thompson went home puzzled.
- Feb. 14—Debaters win and lose from Mishawaka. Kridner's hectic driving jarred them too much.
- Feb. 15—For whom are you rooting? John E. Moo says Kiwanians, Dick Ivey maintains faculty.
- Feb. 16—Taylor was a very bad influence so the affirmative lost to Riley.
- Feb. 17—Big Secret! Today is Miss Eva Hezekiah Thompson's birthday. Her age? Still a big secret.
- Feb. 20—The debaters outtalk Central and the team outplays them 24-16.

- Feb. 21—Lo Bagola, the African Bushman, entranced the assembly with his fascinating talk. Also managed to get us out of 2nd hour class.
- Feb. 22—We wish Washington would have a birthday more often.
- Feb. 23—Believe it or not Lucy walked to class today without Russ.
- Feb. 24—Clem Kowalczyk has swallowed Webster and is now looking for Winston's Simplified Dictionary.
- Feb. 27—Emerson decisively ends the regular season with a 39 to 20 beating.
- Feb. 28—Rolling Prairie seniors play hookey and visit school. Cafeteria sponsors big matinee dance.

MARCH

- March 1—Chain gang found guilty of winning the sectional tourney. John E. Moo, prosecuting attorney won the case by his captivating manner.
- March 2—By special permission of the copyright owners we learned how the Chicago Tribune is printed.
- March 3—Junior Red Cross experiment on two white mice. Tom Dobbie says they can experiment on him if the diet would include the same food which the mice get.
- March 6—We knew you could do it Slicers. L. P. 25. M. C. 17. Now for the regional.
- March 7—Commercial classes hear Mrs. J. J. Moore of the Business College. Nevertheless Tom Rauschenbach prefers to remain with his dear Miss Huddleston.
- March 8—Nation-wide bank moratorium. Vic Hagerty says, "Why not follow the bankers and close school too?"
- March 9—How gloriously Miss Andrew interpreted her part in "The First Mrs. Fraser."
- March 10—Nous avions un programme francais. Kiwanis Club meets in cafeteria. Gee whiz, we don't get any music when we eat there.
- March 13—We believe the score board was wrong but being good sports we wish you more power, Valpo.
- March 14—Seniors decide to have caps and gowns. John Kanney shrank a couple of feet as a result of the storm today.
- March 15—Report cards. Charles Duke captures the lead in the junior class play "Peter Flies High" to be given April 28.
- March 16—Prof. W. W. Blough of Wittenburg College talks on education. Rev. C. H. Wilson told the G. R. about the Japanese girls and young women.
- March 17—We didn't know Miss Walk was Irish. But she even carried a green kerchief today.
- March 20—Basketball team returned home from the state tournament. All of the girl friends seemed to have profited by the team's trip.
- March 21—Ray Hilgendorf's trip southward was of short duration. Poor little Ray got homesick.
- March 22—Bill Hansen plays the part of the ill-mannered newsboy in the assembly today.
- March 23—Evelyn K. starts reducing. The new spring styles influenced her sudden decision.
- March 24—Miss Brown's Senior English classes have turned modern and are now studying technocracy.
- March 27—Girl Reserve cabinet entertains the faculty and Hi-Y officers at tea in the recreation room to get their opinion of it.
- March 28—The recreation room is opened. The halls are deserted. Miss Moore sighed with relief when she saw so many students in the play room.
- March 29—The Rev. Raymond W. Cooper from faraway Andover, Mass., convinced us that "Our Goal of the Present" should be reached now, not ten years from now.
- March 30—We wish Arnold Blaney wouldn't snore so loudly in Mr. Frantz's study. He disturbs the thinkers.

APRIL

- April 5—Michigan City returns the bell to us, sending it back through a representative of their Hi-Y.
- April 6—Pupils showed marked improvement. Mama and Papa came to visit them.
- April 10—Michigan City wins track meet. Helen Yast, Helen VanVactor and Howard Wainscott were victorious in the district Latin contest.
- April 11—Commercial contest. Five teams will compete in the state contest at Muncie.
- April 12—We are instructed in the arts of swimming and golf. We also get a touch of the Olympics through sound motion pictures.
- April 13—Mr. Wm. Kinsey talked to us on his democratic business. If we follow his advice we shall all be stockholders in the school and therefore can do as we please.

- April 14—Spring Vacation.
 April 18—School again. Miss Thompson's home room carries away honors in banking.
 April 20—Jane Simon portrays "A Dutch Serenade" in G. R. meeting.
 April 21—State Latin contest. Helen Yast takes first place in the Vergil division, and Howard Wainscott takes second place in the Cicero section. Lettermen's Club holds dance in gym.
 April 22—Golf meet with Michigan City. Track meet at Kiwanis field. Fort Wayne carried off the honors.
 April 24—Music Contest at Grand Rapids. Helen VanVactor, Dick Janes, "Woody" Fitzsimmons, and Frank Shadel represent LaPorte. Helen VanVactor won a fifty-dollar scholarship.
 April 24—Baseball—Nappanee 1-LaPorte 14.
 April 26—Baseball with Central of South Bend.
 April 27—The El-Pe sponsors a matinee dance.
 April 29—Commercial contest—Dorothy Halberg, Fred Bernth, and Jim Harris won individual bookkeeping honors. Beginning and advanced bookkeeping took first places thereby winning the bookkeeping cup. Beginning shorthand placed third. LaPorte won the governor's cup for placing first in the entire contest.

MAY

- May 1—Juniors score howling success in "Peter Flies High."
 May 2—Miss Thompson announced that if a student wrote an essay about the World's Fair in the Underwood Contest, he would not have to write a term paper. We wish some of the other teachers would have been so kind.
 May 4—State Band and Orchestra Contest in our city.
 May 4—Spring dance. Seniors entertain fellow students for the last time.
 May 4—Carita Collier, Lucille Ribordy and Madaline Demien represented LaPorte in the 4-H section at the Purdue roundup.
